

CIRCUS WRECK KILLS 21.

Two Sections of Wallace Shows Come Together.

CIRCUS PUT OUT OF BUSINESS.

Shrieks of Suffering Human Victims, Together With Cries of Frightened Animals, Created a Babel for Time Being—Many Hurt.

Durant, Mich., Aug. 7.—Special to The News: Twenty-one persons killed outright, seven fatally injured and thirteen badly hurt, a number of valuable animals killed and a loss of property which will force the Wallace circus to go out of business, is the terrible result of a bad collision between two sections of the show trains here this morning.

The immense circus trains, carrying workmen, managers and performers, together with property and menagerie animals, came together because the air brakes refused to set.

The shrieks of the suffering human victims, together with the cries of frightened animals, created a regular Babel. The management announces that they will be unable to resume operations.

STOCKS SHOW SOME GAIN.

After Opening Dip the Market Has a Substantial Rally.

New York, Aug. 7.—Following a weak, almost panicky, opening the stock market suddenly reversed its course, substantial gains being registered by practically all the better class of securities. The average of new advances were about 2 per cent. In some instances gains were greater. The change of front was doubtless due to several reasons, the most potent of which apparently was the "good" buying, which seemed to emanate from high quarters. There is little doubt that stocks were purchased freely by insiders, by banking houses and wealthy individuals because they seemed cheap. No justification could be found for the report industriously circulated that the Vanderbilts, Rockefellers and others, with their hosts of followers, had entered upon a plan to lift prices. As a matter of fact no little part of the improvement was undoubtedly due to extensive covering, many on the short side regarding the market as being very much oversold. Despite the marked improvement, further talk of trouble and probable failures was heard on every side almost to the close, which was really buoyant. Reports current in trustworthy circles suggest that several firms and individuals whose affairs were found to be in bad shape have been permitted to make private settlements, thus saving themselves such sacrifices as would have been made had their holdings been thrown upon the market. The day's business was slightly less than 1,000,000 shares.

BARGE FOUNDERS WITH FIVE.

Captain and One of the Crew Are Saved by Tug.

New Bedford, Mass., Aug. 7.—The barge Florrie, in tow of the tug Boswell, while on her way from Norfolk to Providence, foundered between Barnegat and Fire Island, during a heavy northeast storm. Captain Cobb and one of the deckhands were saved, but Mrs. Cobb, the captain's wife, a ten-year-old son, a boy named Jones, who was making the trip with the captain, the engineer and cook of the barge went down with the vessel and were lost. When the barge began to sink Captain Cobb had just time to seize the two boys, one under each arm, who stood beside him in the pilot house. Mrs. Cobb, the engineer and the cook were all below and were carried down with the barge. The waves tore Captain Cobb's hold from the two boys, who were swept away. Captain Cobb and the deckhand clung to a hatch and were rescued, nearly exhausted, in about half an hour by the tug.

WANTS TO GO BACK TO PRISON.

Paroled Convict Unable to Make an Honest Living.

New York, Aug. 7.—Hungry, with his last cent gone, Charles J. Davis, under sentence for forgery in the Illinois state reformatory, who had violated the parole under which he was released from that institution, gave himself up and asked to be taken back to prison, as he had no hope of making an honest living. Inability to get work at his trade as a stonecutter, because not a member of a union, is the reason for his despondency. Davis said that he was sentenced to an indeterminate term of from one to four years in the Illinois reformatory at Pontiac, Ill., in December, 1897, for forging pay checks on the Chicago and Northwestern railroad. Because of good behavior he was paroled after serving fourteen months.

"Enemy" Not Yet Sighted.

Portland, Me., Aug. 7.—With thick and stormy weather along the entire coast, it would seem as if the attacking fleet under Rear Admiral Sands had the best possible conditions in which to win the war game, by evading the defending squadron under Rear Admiral Barker and establishing itself in some one of the little harbors of the eastern Maine coast, but nothing has been heard from the "enemy," while reports from the defending squadron during the day were somewhat meager.

READY FOR CORONATION

Attention Centers on Sunday's Ceremony at St. Peter's.

TICKETS FOR SIXTY THOUSAND.

Throne to Be Occupied by Pius X to Be Surrounded by a Canopy Forty Feet High—Four Cardinals to Receive Red Hats.

Rome, Aug. 7.—The attention of Rome is centered in the ceremony of tomorrow, and for which great preparations are being made. The throne of St. Peter, which Pius X will occupy, will be surrounded by a canopy forty feet high. The pope has informed the vatican officials that he wishes to be received on the threshold of the basilica by Cardinal Rampolla, who as archpriest of the church, will address the formal greetings to him. At the conclusion of the ceremony the pope will confer his blessing upon the people, but it has not yet been decided whether he will do so inside the church or from the balcony looking out upon the piazza, where many hoped he would bestow his benediction on the day of his election. It is said that Pius X is in favor of the latter plan, but the influence of the vatican officials is against it on the ground that it might be interpreted as a recognition of the present state of affairs in Italy. The holding of the coronation ceremonies in St. Peter's itself represents a concession, as in the case of Leo II occurred in the Sistine chapel.

Although it is estimated that 60,000 tickets will be issued for the event, the demand for them is very great. At the consistories to be held Monday and Thursday next the pope will confer the red hat on Cardinals Ajuti, Tallari, Katschaler and Herrero y Espinosa, who were raised from the purple June 25, but who have not received these symbols of rank because of the illness and death of Leo. It is believed that the Spanish cardinal, Herrero, will not be able to present at the coronation ceremonies.

GOOD SHOWING FOR DEFENSE.

Testimony for State in Feud Cases Is Discredited by More Witnesses.

Cynthiana, Ky., Aug. 7.—H. E. Wilson, a salesman, was on the stand in the Jett and White trial to prove the fact of a large hole in the floor of the court house at Jackson. His testimony corroborated fully Dr. Taulbee and five other witnesses as to there being trees between the house of Marcus and the rock quarry. On cross-examination he said his expenses were paid to Jackson and he was to get $10 besides. Green Strong and James Lee, other witnesses, were introduced to prove the bad character of Ewen. Jett and White were recalled and stood some feet away from the jury, the defense seeking to show that several hundred yards they could not be told apart.

Colombia, Aug. 7.—The latest advice from Bogota state that the adversaries of the Panama canal treaty have assumed a new attitude, which is based on the recently published opinion of an eminent lawyer at Bogota, who claims that acceptance by the Colombian congress of the Hay-Herran treaty would be unconstitutional, because congress did not sanction the last canal project, and for other technical reasons.

Boston, Aug. 7.—The most important feature of the closing session of the National Postmasters' association, other than the election of officers, was the discussion and passage of a resolution to ask congress and the post-office authorities to adopt a system originated by Assistant Postmaster Hubbard of Chicago, by which "stamp certificates" may be issued for carrying on the new extensive mail order business in this country. It was voted to hold the 1904 convention in Atlantic City, N. J. The following officers were elected: President, F. B. Dickerson, Detroit; vice president, W. E. Hull, Peoria, Ill.; treasurer, T. G. LABOR TROUBLE IN RUSSIA

Quarter of a Million Men Affected by Strike.

COSSACKS ATTACK WORKINGMEN

Method of the Government in Dealing With the Strikers One of Savagery. Strike at Odessa is Reported to Be Over.

London, Aug. 7.—The Daily Mail's Nizoloff correspondent fully confirms the Times' correspondent's accounts of strikes in south Russia. The correspondent says that a quarter of a million are affected and that simultaneously strikes have occurred over vast industrial areas. He says the amount of studied organization and well concealed preparations was unprecedented in the troubled annals of Russian labor. Prices of the necessities of life are rising by leaps and bounds. The strikers on the whole have preserved exemplary order, but this, however, has not saved them from savage attacks, directed by General Arzenieff, governor of Odessa. Groups of men, who assembled last Saturday with the intention of holding a meeting, were driven into a solid mass by 500 Cossacks, backed with two regiments of infantry with fixed bayonets. About 2,000 strikers were thus enclosed by a double cordon. The Cossacks rode through them, striking right and left with heavy whips, the fallen men being trampled under the horses' feet. When the living mass had been thoroughly kneaded to the governor's will, numerous men were arrested as suspected agitators. The strikers then marched off and the strikers scattered in a dozen directions, with Cossacks at their heels. It is reported that 400 strikers were more or less seriously injured and that from six to a dozen succumbed. The whole affair is a typical piece of administrative savagery. The extraordinary feature of the movement at Odessa is that the police and gendarmes belonging to one depot threatened to throw off their uniforms and risk all the terrors of insubordination unless the miserable pittance of 11 to 14 pence, which they are allowed daily, was increased and the hours of labor reduced. Siberia is losing its terrors even for Russian police.

The epidemic of incendiarism is spreading through Russia. Scarcely a day passes without news of conflagrations. At Baku alone the destruction has been colossal. Tens of millions of gallons of naphtha have been burned. In twenty-four of the largest towns the damage due to fire in the past month is estimated at $20,000,000 to $35,000,000. The object of the bulk of the fires is to get insurance money. Many of the incendiaries are Jews.

WILL NOT SEE CHILD ALIVE.

Train Racing Across Continent Breaking Records for Steam.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 7.—The Lowe special over the Santa Fe road, which left Chicago at 10:15 Wednesday morning for this city, is breaking all transcontinental records. The schedule as arranged called for a run between Chicago and Los Angeles, a distance of 2,265 miles, in sixty-one hours. When the special reached Albuquerque two and one-half hours had been gained. If the same ratio of gain is maintained for the remainder of the journey the special should reach Los Angeles in about fifty-six hours. It is due here at 11:15 tonight, but probably will come in about 8 o'clock.

Mr. Lowe has been advised of his daughter's death, but he will continue his record-breaking run for which all arrangements had been made before the news was communicated to him.
